Prose – The Prince Frog

The story in short :-

A king had three daughters. The youngest daughter was the most beautiful of all. She loved to play with the red ball in the garden. One day her ball fell down into a pond. The princess became very sad. Suddenly a big frog came there and told her that it would bring her the ball but in return it wanted some reward. The princess agreed and the frog gave her the ball. The frog came to the palace with the princess, ate from her plate and at last wanted to sleep in her bed. Then the princess became so angry that she threw away the frog. Suddenly a young and handsome prince stood in the place of the frog. He told that an evil fairy cursed him and the princess got him out of the curse.
