1. Name of the poetess:

Laura Elizabeth Richards.

She is an American poet and wrote many poems for the children.

2. Summary of the poem.

Ans. The poem is about two rats. They lived in a hole. They loved each other; praised each other in their different activities. One day they got the smell of some cheese. It is very favourite to the rats. So, they thought if they could get some cheese, this would add some extra flavour in their daily food. So, these two rats took every risk and went out of the hole to find some cheese. But the poet noticed that when they were going out of the hole, they were looking very pale, they went out with pain. Why so? The poet could not understand what happened to them. They did not come back again.
