

Sri Ramakrishna Ashrama Institute

Class – II

Subject – English

Unit – Prose

(Rohan and the Pigeon)

Study Material

(To be done in c/w copy)

1. Word Chart:

Word	Synonym	Antonym	Part of speech
a) Living thing	Being	Non living thing	Noun
b) Grateful	Thankful	Ungrateful	Adjective
c) Grain	Cereal	×	Noun
d) Search	Seek	×	Verb
e) Familiar	Well- known	Unfamiliar	Adjective

2. Make Sentence with:

a) Pigeon - White pigeon is the symbol of peace.

b) Story – The story of the princess was very interesting.

c) Food – We should help animals by giving them food.

3. Answer in one or two words:

a) What did Rohan's grandfather know?

Ans. Many stories.

b) What did Rohan bring for the pigeon before going to school?

Ans. Some berries.

c) Who felt very sad?

Ans. Rohan.

d) Whom we should take care?

Ans. Animals and plants.

e) Who started to go with Rohan to school?

Ans. The baby pigeon.

4. Answer in a sentence:

a) To whom did Rohan's grandfather talk?

Ans. Rohan's grandfather talked to animals and plants.

b) Who asked many questions to the baby pigeon?

Ans. Rohan asked many questions to the baby pigeon.

c) What did Rohan bring for the baby pigeon after his breakfast?

Ans. Rohan brought some grains of wheat and small pieces of fruit for the baby pigeon after his breakfast.

d) Why did the baby pigeon cannot fly?

Ans. The baby pigeon could not fly as its wing was hurt.

e) Where did Rohan see the baby pigeon one morning when he woke up?

Ans. One morning when Rohan woke up, he saw the pigeon sitting on the window ledge.

f) What did Rohan see when the bird was sitting on the window ledge?

Ans. When the bird was sitting on the window ledge, Rohan saw that its wing was healed.

g) What did Rohan feel when the baby pigeon flew away?

Ans. Rohan felt very sad when the baby pigeon flew away.

h) What did Rohan tell all his friends?

Ans. Rohan told all his friends that if we take care of an animal, it will be our friend.

5. Read the line and answer the following questions:

A. 'All living things can speak.'

i) Who said this to whom?

Ans. Rohan's grandfather said this to Rohan.

ii) Name two living things of water?

Ans. The name of two living things of water are – fish and frog.

iii) How can Rohan hear living things?

Ans. If Rohan listen carefully to the living things, he can hear them.

B. 'Can I help you?'

i) Who asked this question?

Ans. Rohan asked this question.

ii) Who is 'you' here?

Ans. Here 'you' is the baby pigeon.

iii) Where was it sitting then?

Ans. Then it was sitting on the hedge in the garden.

6. Answer in short:

a) What did Rohan's grandfather say?

Ans. Rohan's grandfather said that living things can speak and if we take care of them, they will be very grateful.

b) Why did Rohan feel very sad?

Ans. Rohan hoped that the baby pigeon would not go away. But the bird stretched its wings and flew away. So Rohan felt sad.

c) What did happen when Rohan was walking home from school?

Ans. When Rohan was walking home from school, he heard the screech of that baby pigeon and saw it was flying towards him and then sat on his shoulder.

d) What happened at the end of the story?

Ans. At the end of the story, the baby pigeon became Rohan's friend and it went with him to school.

e) What lesson do we get from this story?

Ans. The lesson we get from this story that, we should take care of animals and plants and only then they will be our friends.

7. Fill in the blanks from the text:

a) In the ____, he again ____ the pigeon and saw that it had ____ the ____.

Ans. In the evening, he again visited the pigeon and saw that it had eaten the food.

b) He heard a ____ screech from the ____ and saw the pigeon ____ towards him.

Ans. He heard a familiar screech from the garden and saw the pigeon flying towards him.

• Note

- If you have any queries regarding the chapter, write in the comment box.
- Mention the Name, Class, Section, Roll number of the student.
- Provide your phone number so that we can connect you directly if needed.

SRAI